

The voice of business in York County...

York County Chamber of Commerce

Member Testimonials

“If you have a business in York County you definitely need to join the York County Chamber of Commerce. I have certainly found the Chamber to be a great place to meet business men and women and to learn what products and services they offer. It is also an ideal forum to spread the word about your own business.”

~Tom Tragle, State Farm Insurance

“The York County Chamber of Commerce provides an excellent opportunity for local businesses to develop relationships that promote growth within each other’s businesses and the community.”

~Julie Pressley, Bay Community Bank

“As a member of the York County Chamber of Commerce, we have found the resources that the Chamber provides to be invaluable to our restaurant business. Not only have we discovered many helpful sources of products for our business, but we have acquired new customers for our business as well. Thanks so much for making this networking opportunity available.”

~Mario Buffa, Joe & Mimma’s Italian Restaurant & Pizzeria

“As a member of the York County Chamber of Commerce, we are able to better promote the services we offer to other chamber and community members and we can easily find other businesses in the County that offer services we may be in need of. The Chamber provides many opportunities for us to market and grow our business and has a strong influence on the overall growth of business in York County.”

~Jr. Coxtton, Coxtton’s Collision Center

“The York County Chamber of Commerce has been quite instrumental in our sales growth here at Williamsburg Marketcenter. Through our taking part in various functions such as Business After Hours, Trade Shows, and other marketing opportunities provided by the chamber we have truly been able to foster terrific relationships with our fellow business operators throughout York County.”

~Ian M. Moffett, Ukrop’s Williamsburg Marketcenter
