

Vince A. Campana III

Vince A. Campana, III acquired his Real Estate Salesman license after graduating from Walsingham Academy in Williamsburg, Va. Afterwards he attended Radford University and then Christopher Newport University where he graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in History. He is a vivacious real estate broker and prides himself on 'always going the extra mile.' He is highly experienced in dealing with a variety of commercial sales and leases and has persistence, personality, and passion for "getting the job done."

Beyond real estate, Vince is active with various organizations such as the Williamsburg Chamber of Commerce and the York County Chamber of Commerce.

In 2009 he was accepted too and graduated from the Virginia Peninsula Chamber of Commerce Leadership Institute.

In 2007 Vince cofounded the Young Emerging Professionals of Williamsburg.

And when he is not selling real estate, Vince is a professional skydiver at the Virginia Skydiving Center in Petersburg, Va.
